Strategic Goals and Implementation

Strategy 1 Market Stability

Key Action Aspects ① Establish diverse digital platforms to meet the needs of stakeholders

2025 Objectives	Status	Short-term Targets (2026)	Medium-term Targets (2027-2030)	Long-term Targets (2031-2050)
Continue to optimize the sustainability information disclosure platform and assistive tools • Continue to expand content on the ESG InfoHub dashboards, and provide users with related resources such as sustainability report examples. • Launch the Sustainability Report Assistance Function on the ESG Digital Platform to improve disclosure reporting.	✓ Completed	• Add information related to carbon reduction; expand resources and applicability of ESG InfoHub. • Adopt XBRL format for IFRS reporting and disclosure on the ESG Digital Platform, as well as AI-assisted reporting of ESG indicators.	• Continue to study and refine the ESG InfoHub dashboard design. • Adjust indicators and content on the ESG Digital Platform in accordance with international trends.	• Introduce AI technology on the ESG InfoHub to provide more comprehensive ESG information.
Strengthen market information disclosure to meet investor needs • Add securities lending and other trading information to the Investment InfoHub 2.0; assess the addition of comparison information based on industry classification of listed companies.	✓ Completed	• Optimize the Investment Infohub to provide comparable market data for institutional investors.	• Introduce AI technology to provide comprehensive investment information.
Establish the IPO Information Hub • Update the IPO Information Hub by incorporating SPO information and renaming it as the IPO/SPO Information Hub, to enhance the user experience.	✓ Completed	• Continue to optimize the content and user experience of the IPO/SPO Information Hub.
Facilitate communication between listed companies and institutional investors • Launch the IR Zone to highlight listed companies and increase their exposure; integrate online conference and registration systems to enhance interaction. • Deepen ESG information services, optimize the two-way feedback mechanism, add active push notifications, and strengthen matchmaking in addition to basic functions to improve user experience and immediate information delivery.	✓ Completed	• Continue to expand and optimize the four main services of the platform. • Allow companies to respond to their assessment results through the feedback form for TIP Taiwan ESG Ratings. • Send notifications to institutional investors, enhancing interest in tib listed companies and encouraging direct engagement.	• Continue to collect user feedback, analyze market demand and incorporate new technology, plus regularly launch new features and services to maintain market competitiveness. • Expand the scope of ESG value-added data services to provide more refined and diversified ESG data plus indicators to meet market demand. • Optimize the IR Zone webpage and online conference value-added functions to further enhance the user experience alongside promoting efficient interaction between listed companies and institutional investors.	• Continue to improve platform functions to serve the capital market, enhance engagement, and deepen the relationship between listed companies and institutional investors.

Strategy 1 Market Stability

Key Action Aspects ② Promote anti-fraud measures and enhance the quality of information disclosure to maintain market safety

2025 Objectives	Status	Short-term Targets (2026)	Medium-term Targets (2027-2030)	Long-term Targets (2031-2050)
Work with securities firms to fight fraud and maintain market information security • Plan and establish an anti-fraud reporting platform for securities firms, with features such as photo and text information sharing, anti-fraud database, and data analytics. • Conduct the 2025 Securities Firms Anti-Fraud Evaluation.	✓ Completed	• Launch the revamped Securities Anti-Fraud Joint Defense Section, with features such as photo and text information sharing, anti-fraud database, and data analytics. • Continue to conduct securities firms' anti-fraud evaluations and anti-fraud awareness seminars.	• Continue securities firms' anti-fraud evaluations, plus make timely adjustments to anti-fraud measures in the securities market based on the latest fraud trends in the country.
Establish reporting system for illegal online advertisements and fraudulent content • Apply emerging technologies to optimize and streamline the reporting of suspicious fraud advertisements to increase reporting frequency; work with peripheral units to improve efficacy of fraud prevention.	✓ Completed	• Introduce AI fraud detection and continue to increase the efficiency of fraudulent advertisement reporting, to stop fraud ads and reduce public risk at the source.	• Refine AI fraud detection and continue to increase the efficiency of fraudulent advertisement reporting, to reduce market risk and uphold investor confidence.	• Integrate future technology advancements to prevent fraud, continue to optimize fraudulent advertisement reporting to safeguard the public's assets.
Enhance the quality of sustainable information disclosure • Continue to update the FAQ on IFRS Sustainability Disclosure Standards; publish sample templates on IFRS reporting and other reference documents. • Expand scope of review of listed companies' sustainability reports and auditors' assurance working papers; include GHG assurance working papers in review mechanism. • Conduct workshops and seminars. • Launch the Sustainability Report Assistance Function.	✓ Completed	• Continue to update the FAQ on IFRS Sustainability Disclosure Standards; publish sample templates on IFRS reporting and other reference documents. • Continue to review listed companies' sustainability reports and auditors' assurance working papers. • Conduct workshops and seminars. • Update the Sustainability Report Assistance Function to align with international sustainability reporting trends.	• Continue to update the FAQ on IFRS Sustainability Disclosure Standards; publish guidance on IFRS reporting and other reference documents.
Continue to monitor the disclosure of material information by listed companies • Gradually step up requirements for all listed companies to provide information disclosure in advance of the annual general meeting of shareholders (AGM).	✓ Completed	• Continue to require all listed companies to provide information disclosure in advance of the AGM.	• Study simplifying or relaxing information reporting items for listed companies to reduce their operational burden and enhance the availability of information disclosure.	• Continue to establish sound regulations to enhance the timeliness and integrity of listed companies' information reporting.

Strategy 1 Market Stability

Key Action Aspects ② Promote anti-fraud measures and enhance the quality of information disclosure to maintain market safety

2025 Objectives	Status	Short-term Targets (2026)	Medium-term Targets (2027-2030)	Long-term Targets (2031-2050)
Strengthen securities market's cybersecurity resilience, capacity, and personnel quality • Continue to assist fourth-level securities firms in installing IPS and WAF cybersecurity protection mechanisms. • Conduct relevant international information security certification courses. • Increase platform reporting items and implement regulations on securities firms' cybersecurity review mechanisms. • Continue to assist market participants in strengthening their ability to respond to and handle cybersecurity incidents through the Security and Futures Computer Emergency Response Team (SF-CERT). • In response to AI issues, emerging technology developments, and recent cybersecurity incidents, as well as to enhance operational resilience, continue to add and revise relevant guidelines and cybersecurity regulations to help strengthen the market's cybersecurity and operational resilience.	✓ Completed	• Continue to provide information security alerts, follow up on information security incidents, offer consulting services, and assist market participants in strengthening their ability to respond to and handle cybersecurity incidents through SF-CERT. • Continue to assist fourth-level securities firms in installing IPS and WAF cybersecurity protection mechanisms. • Conduct relevant international information security certification courses. • Increase platform reporting items and implement regulations on securities firms' cybersecurity review mechanisms. • In response to AI issues, emerging technology developments, and recent cybersecurity incidents, as well as to enhance operational resilience, continue to add and revise relevant guidelines and cybersecurity regulations to help strengthen the market's cybersecurity and operational resilience.	• Assist fourth-level securities firms in conducting information security diagnostics. • Assess securities firms and introduce a zero trust architecture. • Continue to review and expand the scope and depth of services by SF-CERT. • Strengthen supervision of securities firms' use of AI technology; in response to emerging technologies and cybersecurity incidents, continue to revise relevant guidelines to help strengthen the market's cybersecurity and operational resilience.	• Assist all securities firms in increasing the frequency of information security diagnostics. • Enhance the level of encryption for securities firms' networks to meet international standards. • Continue to review and expand the scope and depth of services by SF-CERT. • In response to emerging technologies and cybersecurity incidents, continue to revise relevant guidelines to help strengthen the market's cybersecurity and operational resilience.