Strategy 3 International Cooperation

Key Action Aspects ① Continue to deepen connections with international organizations, respond to initiatives, and cultivate green-collar talents

2025 Objectives	Status	Short-term Targets (2026)	Medium-term Targets (2027-2030)	Long-term Targets (2031-2050)
Deepen international connections • Host the 2025 AOSEF General Assembly. • Continue to participate in meetings of international organizations such as the OECD and ACGA. • Engage in cooperation with exchanges in the Middle East. • Strengthen joint marketing with Asian exchanges; promote cross-listing of financial products with Asian exchanges.	✓ Completed	• Participate in the AOSEF cybersecurity study group to strengthen experience sharing and cooperation with global exchanges. • Promote joint marketing and cross-listing of financial products with other exchanges. • Invite ACGA to Taiwan to host the 2026 Annual General Meeting.	• Continue to participate in meetings of international organizations such as the OECD and ACGA. • Cooperate with Asian exchanges on product development and marketing. • Promote joint marketing and cross-listing of financial products with other exchanges.	• Continue to participate in meetings of international organizations such as the OECD and ACGA. • Explore various areas of cooperation with exchanges of other countries.
Foster green talent • Continue to conduct sustainability-related workshops and seminars. • In line with international trends and industry demands, continue to collaborate with industry, government, academia and research institutions to conduct promotion and training courses related to sustainability, carbon credits, and carbon management. • Continue to collaborate with international organizations to conduct ISO certification courses in carbon inventory, carbon footprint, and carbon neutrality. This aims to foster green talent in Taiwan and to align practices like carbon inventory with international standards.	✓ Completed	• Continue to conduct sustainability-related workshops and seminars. • In line with international trends and industry demands, continue to collaborate with industry, government, academia and research institutions to conduct promotion and training courses related to sustainability, carbon credits, and carbon management. • Continue to collaborate with international organizations to conduct ISO certification courses in carbon inventory, carbon footprint, and carbon neutrality. This aims to foster green talent in Taiwan in addition to aligning practices like carbon inventory with international standards.

Strategy 3 International Cooperation

Key Action Aspects ② Strengthen engagement with foreign institutional investors and attract international capital

2025 Objectives	Status	Short-term Targets (2026)	Medium-term Targets (2027-2030)	Long-term Targets (2031-2050)
Increase the global visibility of the Taiwan capital market • Host Taiwan Weeks activities. • Jointly organize investment promotion events in Taiwan with foreign securities firms. • Jointly conduct capital introduction events abroad with intermediaries. • Work with the Taiwan External Trade Development Council to organize forums with listed companies and institutional investors at COMPUTEX Taipei.	✓ Completed	• Warmly welcome industry representatives to participate in Taiwan Weeks activities and expand global connections. • Continue to collaborate with intermediary institutions to organize investment promotion events in Taiwan and abroad. • Strengthen communication channels with major institutional investors to attract foreign investment. • Organize investment promotion events in conjunction with major international exhibitions and diverse capital market activities.	• Organize in-person and online investment promotion events in Taiwan and abroad to promote Taiwan's capital market and high-quality listed companies, strengthen engagement with institutional investors, and attract international capital. • Continue to collaborate with intermediary institutions to organize investment promotion events in Taiwan and abroad. • Organize investment promotion events in conjunction with major international exhibitions and diverse capital market activities. • Strengthen communication channels with major institutional investors to attract foreign investment.	• Enhance the global visibility of Taiwan's capital market through expanded international cooperation, cross-market investment promotion events, enhanced IR services, and increased frequency of investor conferences.